3.81

Environment enhancement to promote psychological well-being.

At the time of inspection, there was no documented environmental enhancement program for the five non-human primates housed at the facility. An adequate environmental enhancement program is essential in promoting the psychological well-being of non-human primates. Dealers, Exhibitors, and research facilities must develop, document, and follow an appropriate plan for environment enhancement adequate to promote the psychological well-being of non-human primates, it must be in accordance with the currently accepted professional standards and as directed by the attending veterinarian. The licensee must ensure that a documented plan for environmental enrichment that addresses the required elements is maintained and available for inspection.
